

CLARE
Fennell

TALENT SHOW

Bee silly,

bee crazy,

bee friendly

bee funny

Bursting with laughter is sweeter than honey.

"I am the famous superhero Zebro!
I am suuuuper duper
helpful wherever I go!"

"Woo hoo!"

His name is actually Keith

“A balloon stuck
in a tree?....

...No problems!..”

“Lost cat? ”

“I’ll bring it back!”

“I can even help you carry the shopping home!”

Like most cats, Charlie enjoyed playing.

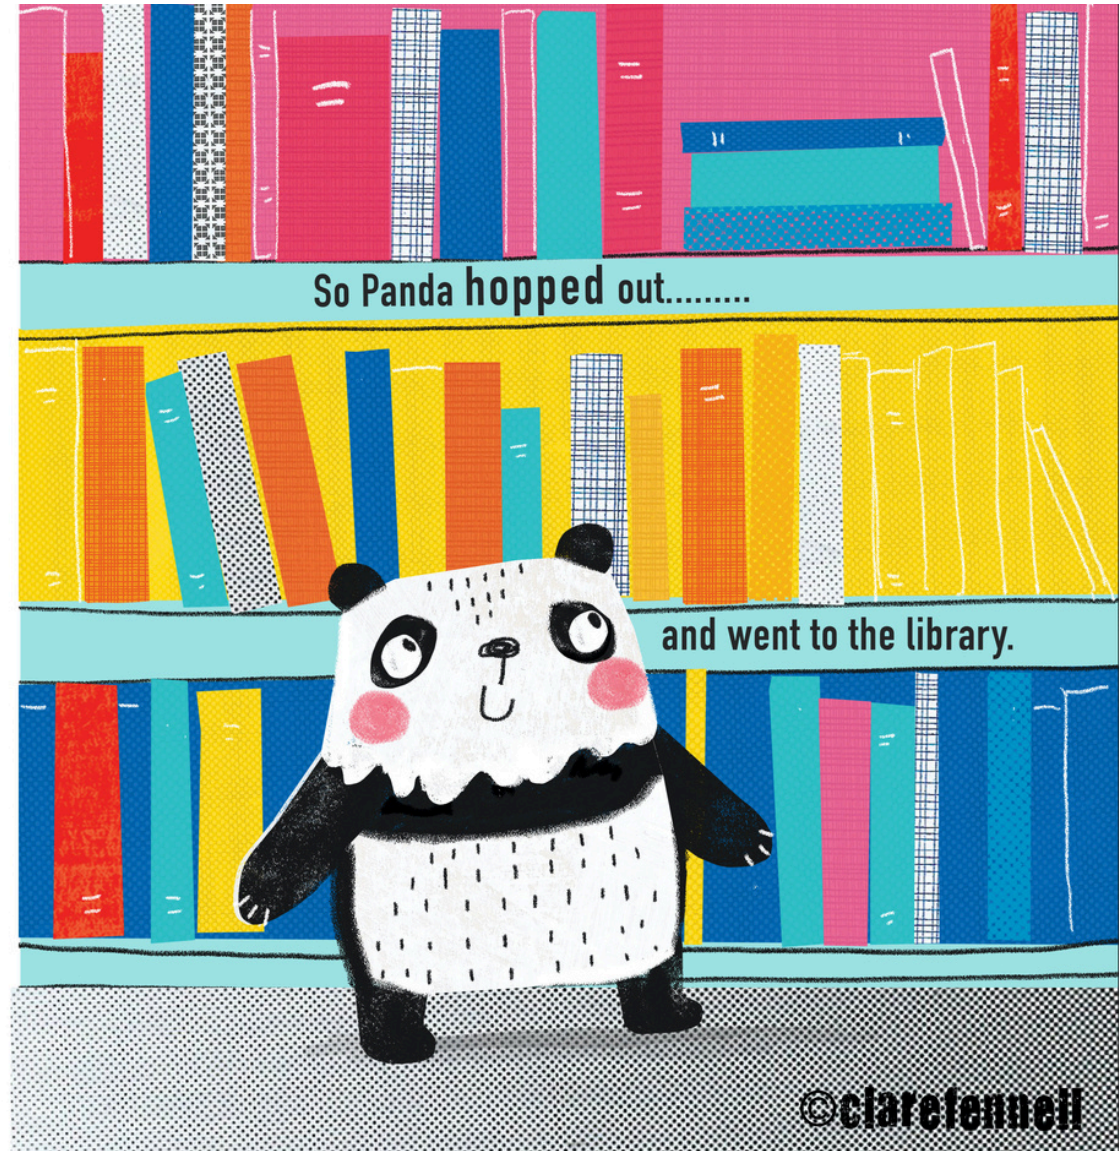

©clarefennell

©clarefennell

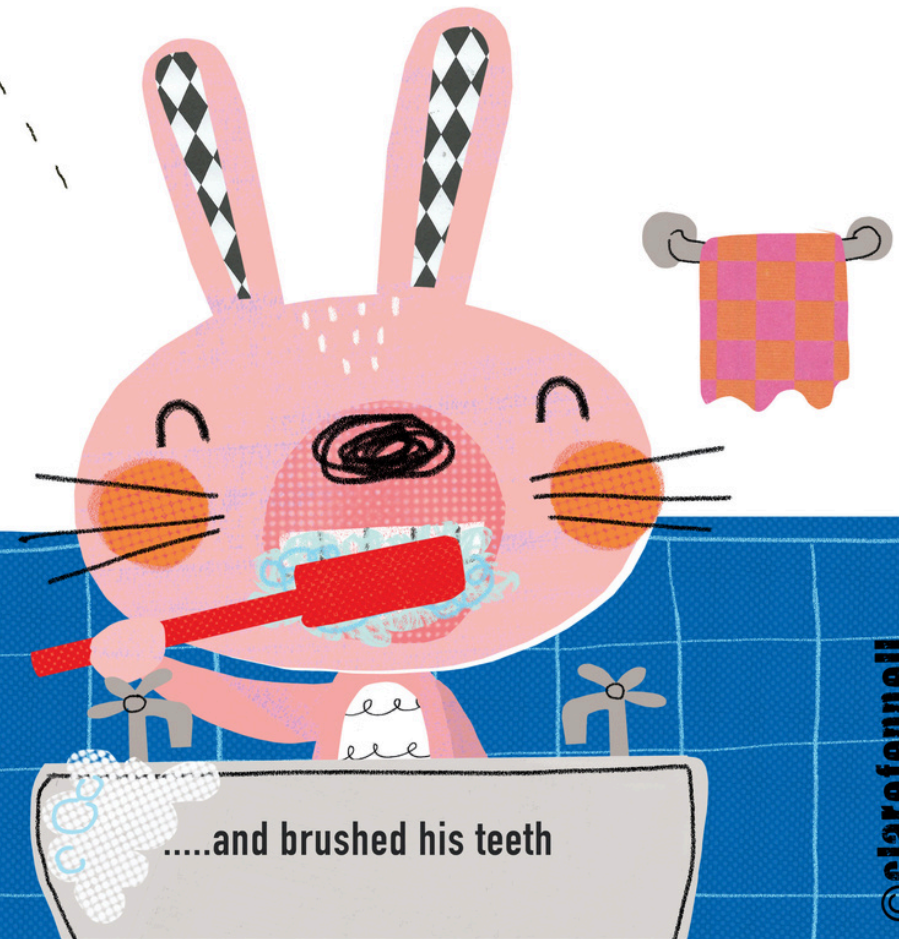

©clarefennell

Can you count the 10 animals?

So they all moved up and bunny hopped out...

.....and brushed his teeth

One thing the chicks love to do is to go and visit the cows in their field.

Can you follow the path with your finger?

©clarefennell

Max finds the mooing scary, she never knows when the cows might just moo unexpectedly.

Mooooo!

Can you say Shhhhhh to the cows?

©clarefennell

Having left university with an illustration degree, Clare worked as a designer and studio manager in the greetings card industry for fifteen years. After which she decided to follow her lifelong ambition to illustrate children's books. Clare set to work creating her own studio filled with picture books, cats, cushions, pencils, paint and a gazillion scraps of paper.

Clare now works from her dream studio in Leicestershire, where she can also be found daydreaming, listening to loud tunes, and drinking too much coffee. In her work, Clare uses a mix of collage and digital techniques, she loves pattern, texture, typography and is always collecting things to use in her artwork.

Clare has now has illustrated over 40 books including The Christmas sElfie which featured as the CBeebies bedtime story for Xmas Day 2018.